FBJSL Announces Two Beneficiaries for 2010 Pancakes & Pajamas

The third annual Pancakes & Pajamas Children's Festival, presented by the Fort Bend Junior Service League and Texas Children's Hospital, will be held Saturday, February 6, 2010 from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. at The Honor Roll School in Sugar Land. The theme for this event is "Wacky Wonka and the Pancake Factory" and is sure to provide adventure and fun for the entire family.

The 2009 event raised $31,000 for Fort Bend charitable organizations, and with the generous support of community sponsors, Pancakes & Pajamas hopes to raise even more money in 2010. The proceeds from the 2010 event will benefit East Fort Bend Human Needs Ministry and Fort Bend Lawyers Care.

East Fort Bend Human Needs Ministry (EFBHNM) is a non-profit organization that addresses the basic human needs of Fort Bend families and senior citizens. Its primary program is the Interfaith Food Pantry, which provides uninterrupted services to thousands of local residents. EFBHNM also provides financial services to assist during times of crisis with housing, utility and medical expenses.

Fort Bend Lawyers Care (FBLC) is a non-profit organization that provides pro bono legal services to low-income citizens by coordinating a process to allow volunteer attorneys to accept legal cases of qualified clients. FBLC further provides annual walk-in legal clinics to assist citizens with a variety of legal issues including family law, consumer, landlord-tenant, probate and estate planning matters.

There are many sponsorship and underwriting opportunities available at various levels. For more information, please contact Cherie Bauch at pancakes@fbjsl.com.

The Pancakes & Pajamas planning committee looks forward to seeing everyone in wacky pajamas on Saturday, February 6, 2010.
